

Cleethorpes AC celebrated their 100th running of the Croxby Crawl road race in style with a record field of 168 runners toeing the start line surpassing the previous record turn out of 141 back in 1987.

Host club runner, Martin Formstone, the clubs new Marathon record holder, secured his hat-trick of wins in a new pb of 23.52 moving him to 18th on the all-time list.

Lincoln Wellington's, Blue Haywood, in her Croxby Debut, ran out the winner clocking 26.51 for the distance putting her 5th on the All-Time list and at only 17 years the fastest teenager in the 27 year of Croxby. Already a running legend in the Grimsby area after her sensational run in the 2006 Grimsby Sea Wall 5 Mile when as a 15 year old she clocked 28.40 and beat all the male runners bar one.

Richard Brown of Louth AC, winner of the recent Wolds Vets 5 mile (26.13) on the Lincolnshire Wolds was in the runner up position and recorded a Personal Best of 23.59 for the distance.

Phil Williams, twice winner at Croxby in 2008, formerly of Lincoln Wellington and holder of their club record at Croxby (23.48) but making his debut for Rochdale Harriers & AC was in third spot.

Host club, Natalie Farrow, was in the runner-up position, in a Personal Best of 27.09 knocking 12 second off her 2008 time, like the winner, Blue Haywood, both have raced in the previous days, Blue winning the Silverstone 10k the previous night and Natalie on the Bank Holiday Monday, winning the Rothwell 10K in a PB of 35.30 following on from her recent 1.19.43 PB in the recent Sheffield Half-Marathon.

Wold Veteran, Daphne Ellmore, currently top of her age group ranking in the UK at the 5 mile; 10k and Ten Mile was in third spot, agonisingly only three seconds shy of her Croxby age group ranking. There was rumour flying around that Daphne might be making her Croxby Two Lap debut sometime during the summer!

Jean Harris of the Wolds Veterans knocked one minutes two seconds of Jasmin Powell's W70 course record to record 48.41 for the distance.
